

LANDLORDS - Do you have vacancies? If so, we may be able to help!

The City of Bloomington
Community and Family Resources Commission in partnership with the Bloomington Housing Authority, and the Monroe County Circles Initiative would like to invite you to attend:

There's No Place Like Home
Affordable Housing: Information & Opportunities for Rental Property Owners/Managers

In response to our Town Hall meeting, the Community and Family Resources Commission, in partnership with the Bloomington Housing Authority, and the Monroe County Circles Initiative would like to invite Rental Property Owners/Managers to an informational session addressing the critical need for affordable housing options in Bloomington, and Monroe County; specifically how property owners can benefit by renting to low and moderate income residents.

Representatives from the Bloomington Housing Authority, and the Monroe County Circles Initiative will present information pertinent to property owners, including addressing myths about Section 8 rentals. Current landlords and residents of Section 8 housing will share their experiences. The Housing and Neighborhood Development Department will be present to answer questions.

Rental Property Owners/Managers can register to win a $50 gift card from Lowe's or Menards...

Snacks and Beverages will be provided!

Tuesday, October 5th - 6:00 p.m.
Council Chambers
Showers Building

For more information contact Kathy Mayer Community and Family Resources Commission Liaison at:
(812) 349-3430 or mayerk@bloomington.in.gov.
<https://bloomington.in.gov/board/cfr>

Printing services donated by Cartridge World

